Welcome from Michael Rooney Clinical Psychotherapist Certified Sex Addiction Therapist

RECLAIM Your life Through Healing the Past

Are you on the path to recovery from sex / porn addiction, but find that childhood trauma continues to cast a shadow over your journey?

- The RECLAIM experiential trauma workshop is based on the work of Pia Mellody, Bessel van der Kolk, Peter Levine and John Bradshaw. It will also incorporate Somatic Experiencing and Brainspotting (body awareness approaches to healing trauma).
- Participation is limited to a maximum of 7 attendees.

This brochure provides you with information on

- Accommodation and venue details.
- Investment cost, including early bird discounts.

The healing workshop will be held at the Women's Healing Sanctuary, a safe and nurturing space. I am grateful for their generosity in hosting us.

I look forward to supporting you on your healing journey.

What You Will Gain

Heal from trauma.
Reclaim your life.

This intensive workshop is geared to help participants not just learn but experience the following:

Understanding the Link:

Explore the profound connection between childhood trauma and sex addiction.

Building Resilience:

Develop resilience and empowerment on your path to recovery.

Safe and Confidential Environment:

Connect with other men who share similar experiences in a confidential and judgment-free space.

Empowerment through Expression:

Engage in therapeutic processes to release the negative messages and emotions rooted in painful experiences from the past in order to RECLAIM the authentic self and move forward in freedom.

Community Building:

Forge meaningful connections with fellow participants, building a supportive network of understanding and encouragement that extends beyond the workshop.

Practical Coping Strategies:

Acquire practical coping strategies and skills to navigate triggers and challenges on your recovery journey.

Technology Free Environment

In our technology-free "Sanctuary Bubble" workshop:

- Participants must hand over all electronic devices, including phones, laptops, and smartwatches.
- No calls are allowed, and participants must handle work and home responsibilities before arriving.
- Complete disconnection from work and home is required, even overnight.
- If you are unable to fully disconnect, attending a future workshop is advisable.
- For communication with minor children, leaving notes or video messages is suggested.
- Emergency contact information will be provided for serious family emergencies, however, staff won't interrupt the workshop for work-related matters.
